Part B. Information About Your Application

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on: Race: Yes Religion: Yes Nationality: Yes Political Opinion: Yes Membership in a particular social group: Yes Torture Convention: Yes
A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?: Yes If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: I, Kyi Lei Yee Oo, and my close colleagues have experienced significant harm, mistreatment, and threats due to our political beliefs and activities advocating for democracy in Myanmar. In February 2021, during a peaceful protest in Yangon, I was physically assaulted by police who used batons against me and other protestors. Additionally, in August 2023, I was arrested and subjected to both physical abuse and sexual harassment while detained. The authorities targeted me specifically for my role in financially supporting the Civil Disobedience Movement. During my detention, I was beaten, and an officer sexually harassed me under the guise of a search. The mistreatment was an attempt to extract information and intimidate me into ceasing my involvement in pro-democracy activities. The threats and violence were perpetrated by the Myanmar military and police, who acted under the orders of the military-led government. The motivation behind these actions was to suppress opposition and maintain control by instilling fear among activists like myself. My colleagues, including Ko Min and Ma Lei, who were also involved in these protests, have faced similar threats and remain imprisoned under dire conditions. This pattern of abuse reflects the military's strategy to dismantle any resistance to their rule.
B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I harbor a deep fear of returning to my home country, Myanmar, due to the high risk of harm and mistreatment from the authorities. If I were to return, I fear being detained, tortured, or even executed because of my previous involvement in pro-democracy activities and my support for the Civil Disobedience Movement. This fear is grounded in my personal experiences of violence and abuse by the military and police. For instance, during my arrest in August 2023, I endured physical abuse and sexual harassment while in custody. These acts were committed by members of the Myanmar police force, acting under the military-led government's directives aimed at suppressing any opposition. The military and police in Myanmar systematically target individuals who are seen as threats to their authority, particularly those who have actively participated in opposition movements. The ongoing political situation in Myanmar remains volatile and dangerous, especially for those with a history of political activism against the current regime. This makes the likelihood of further persecution upon return highly probable.
2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: I was arrested and detained in Myanmar in August 2023. The arrest occurred during a covert operation where I was providing financial support to members of the Civil Disobedience Movement, an activity stemming from my involvement in pro-democracy efforts. This arrest was part of a targeted operation by undercover security forces dressed in civilian clothes, who were monitoring and aiming to disrupt activities against the military-led government. During my detention, I was interrogated and subjected to physical and sexual abuse by police officers. The purpose of this mistreatment was to extract information about the Civil Disobedience Movement and intimidate others involved in similar activities. My family has also been affected indirectly; they have been harassed and threatened by authorities seeking to extract bribes or information due to my political activities and the arrest. Frequent visits by the police to our family home for unannounced searches and demands for money have been a common occurrence, adding to our collective persecution and motivating our decision to seek safety outside Myanmar.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?:

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.: I am afraid of being subjected to torture if I return to Myanmar due to my past and current political activism against the military-led government. The nature of the torture I fear includes physical abuse, sexual harassment, and psychological intimidation, which I have previously endured. These forms of torture are often used by the military and police in Myanmar to extract information, punish, and instill fear among activists and dissenters. My direct involvement in pro-democracy movements, including financial support to activists and participation in protests, has made me a target for such brutal treatment. The military and police forces, who operate with impunity under the current regime, systematically employ torture against those perceived as threats to their control. The reason for this torture would be to break my spirit, force confessions, and deter others in the community from engaging in similar activities. Given my history and the ongoing oppressive tactics of the government, there is a very real and imminent risk of torture if I were to return.
