Part B. Information About Your Application
When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions. :
1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:
Race: Yes Religion: Yes Nationality: Yes Political Opinion: Yes

Membership in a particular social group: Yes

Torture Convention: Yes

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?:

Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: I, along with my family and friends, have experienced significant harm and mistreatment, as well as threats, primarily due to our political activism against the military regime in Burma. In May 2021, during a peaceful protest in front of Myanmar Plaza, I was physically attacked by the police. The police, acting under the orders of the military government, targeted protesters with batons and attempted to detain us forcibly, striking me on the head and body. This incident was not isolated; similar threats and acts of violence occurred repeatedly, particularly during and after the military coup in February 2021. My brothers also suffered; they were arrested in March 2022 by the military police, accused of anti-government activities. We had to bribe the police to secure the release of my middle brother in November of that year, while my eldest brother was only released during the Thingyan festival in April 2023 under a government pretense of leniency. Our involvement in these activities has made us targets for the regime, which seeks to quash any opposition through intimidation, violence, and arbitrary detention. This pattern of abuse is a direct result of our steadfast commitment to restoring democracy in Burma and our refusal to accept the military's illegitimate takeover of our government.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I fear harm or mistreatment if I return to my home country of Burma. The specific harm I anticipate includes arrest, torture, possible execution, and other forms of cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment. I believe that these actions would be carried out by the military police and other security forces operating under the authority of the military-led government. My fear is based on my past experiences and my ongoing political activism against the military regime. During previous protests and demonstrations advocating for democracy and opposing the military's takeover, I was arrested, detained, and tortured. These forces have demonstrated a clear pattern of targeting individuals like me who are involved in pro-democracy movements. Given my history of activism and the high-profile nature of my participation in these movements, it is likely that I would be specifically targeted upon my return, as the military continues to suppress any dissent to solidify its power. The risk of harm is exacerbated by the military's control over the judiciary and lack of accountability, which ensures that such mistreatment often goes unpunished.

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: Both I and my family members have been accused, arrested, detained, and interrogated in Burma. The circumstances surrounding these actions stem from our involvement in pro-democracy movements and opposition to the military regime. In detail, I was arrested multiple times due to my active participation in protests against the military's illegal takeover. For instance, in May 2021, during a peaceful protest, I was detained by the police who targeted protesters with violent force. Similarly, my brothers were arrested in March 2022 for their involvement in these activities. The reasons for these arrests were always linked to our resistance against the military government, as the regime aims to suppress any opposition through fear, intimidation, and direct violence. These arrests and detentions often involved harsh interrogations meant to extract information about our networks and future plans for protests, underscoring the punitive measures taken by the government against its critics.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?:

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.: I am afraid of being subjected to torture in my home country, Burma, if I am returned. The nature of the torture I fear includes physical beatings, electric shocks, prolonged detention in inhumane conditions, and psychological abuse, which are commonly reported methods used by the military police and other security forces against political dissidents. These acts of torture would likely be inflicted by the military police under the direction of the military-led government, which has demonstrated its willingness to use such measures to intimidate and silence opposition. My fear is based on personal experiences and those of my close associates within the pro-democracy movement. For example, during my detention in 2021, I was subjected to severe physical abuse, and I witnessed similar treatment of others detained with me. The intent behind this torture is to break the spirit of political activists, force confessions, and deter further participation in activities opposing the regime. Given my prominent role in anti-military protests and my history of arrests, I have a well-founded fear that such treatment would be repeated if I were to return.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

During this time, I resided at Lumpini Palace Phahon Saphan Khwai in Bangkok. The reason for my stay in Thailand was to prepare for my journey to seek asylum in the United States.

If "Yes," describe in detail each such incident and your own, your spouse's, or your child(ren)'s involvement.:

4. After you left the country where you were harmed or fear harm, did you return to that country?: No

If "Yes," describe in detail the circumstances of your visit(s) (for example, the date(s) of the trip(s), the purpose(s) of the trip(s), and the length of time you remained in that country for the visit(s).):
