Part B. Information About Your Application

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on: Race: Yes Religion: Yes Nationality: Yes Political Opinion: Yes Membership in a particular social group: Yes Torture Convention: Yes
A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?: Yes If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: I and my husband experienced severe harm, mistreatment, and threats. On June 10, 2021, we were arrested and subjected to physical torture by police and military personnel under the military-run government of Myanmar. This brutal encounter resulted in significant physical injuries for me and the death of my husband while in custody. The direct cause of these actions was our active involvement in political activities opposing the military dictatorship, including supporting the Civil Disobedience Movement and aiding internally displaced people. Our actions were perceived as threats to the military government's authority, leading to our targeted persecution.
B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I have a profound fear of harm or mistreatment if I return to Myanmar. I fear arrest, torture, and possible execution due to my political activities and opposition to the military regime. The perpetrators would likely be the Myanmar police and military personnel, who operate under the direct control of the military government. My involvement in the pro-democracy movement, participation in fundraising for the Civil Disobedience Movement, and assistance to internally displaced persons have marked me as an enemy of the state. Given my past experiences of torture and the death of my husband under similar circumstances, the threat upon my return would be both immediate and severe, perpetuated by a government that systematically suppresses dissent and punishes political opposition.
2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: Both my husband and I were arrested and detained by the Myanmar police on June 10, 2021. The arrest occurred without any legal warrants and was executed by police and military personnel who forcibly entered our home in Yangon. The reason for our arrest was our active involvement in political activities against the military dictatorship of Myanmar, including our roles in supporting the Civil Disobedience Movement and providing aid to internally displaced persons. This involvement in pro-democracy activities led to our being targeted, arrested, and subjected to physical torture. My husband unfortunately died while in custody under suspicious circumstances.
3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:
3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?: If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:
4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.: I am deeply afraid of being subjected to torture if I return to Myanmar. My fear is based on past experiences where I was arrested, detained, and severely tortured by police and military personnel because of my involvement in political activities opposing the military government. Given my continued opposition to the regime, as evidenced by my activities even while in the United States, and the ongoing political repression in Myanmar, there is a substantial and real risk that I would face similar or worse treatment if I were to return.
