Part B. Information About Your Application

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:

Race: Yes
Religion: Yes
Nationality: Yes
Political Opinion: Yes
Membership in a particular social group: Yes
Torture Convention: Yes

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: my family and I have experienced significant harm and threats due to our political activism in Myanmar. Specifically, on the evening of June 16, 2023, our home was forcibly entered by armed police officers searching for my mother, San San Aye, because of her involvement in the Civil Disobedience Movement. Unable to find her, they instead assaulted my father and me. I was handcuffed, forcefully taken from our home, and subjected to severe physical abuse at the police station. This included beatings and being deprived of food and water over two days. The perpetrators of these actions were members of the Myanmar police force, acting under the directives of the military government. The reason for this abuse and mistreatment is directly related to our family's active participation in movements opposing the military dictatorship. Such state-sponsored violence is a deliberate tactic by the regime to suppress dissent, intimidate supporters of democracy, and maintain their authoritarian control over the country.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I fear significant harm and mistreatment if I return to my home country, Myanmar. The harm I fear includes arrest, detention, torture, and potentially fatal violence due to my active participation in pro-democracy activities. I believe the primary perpetrators of this harm would be the Myanmar military and the police force, both of which have demonstrated a consistent pattern of violently suppressing dissent and targeting individuals involved in political activism against the military regime. My involvement in protests, particularly the Civil Disobedience Movement, and my family's known opposition to the military dictatorship significantly increase my risk of persecution. These actions against me would likely occur because the military government uses such measures as a means to intimidate, silence, and punish any opposition, thereby maintaining their grip on power through fear and coercion. The ongoing political climate and the military's control over the country leave no doubt that my return would result in severe and possibly irreversible consequences.

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: both I and my family members have been accused, arrested, detained, and interrogated in Myanmar, primarily due to our involvement in political activities opposing the military regime. In particular, on June 16, 2023, I was forcibly taken from my home by police who were searching for my mother due to her activities in the Civil Disobedience Movement. After failing to find her, the police arrested and detained me. I was taken to a local police station where I was interrogated about my mother's whereabouts and our political affiliations. During my detention, I was subjected to physical and psychological abuse aimed at extracting information and intimidating other potential activists. My arrest and the treatment I received were part of a broader strategy by the military government to suppress dissent and maintain control through fear and coercion. This pattern of harassment and abuse against my family has been ongoing, with several incidents of similar nature occurring due to our visible opposition to the regime's oppressive policies and our active participation in pro-democracy movements.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?:

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.: I am deeply afraid of being subjected to torture if I return to my home country, Myanmar. The nature of the torture I fear includes physical beatings, deprivation of food and water, and psychological abuse, all of which I have previously endured during my detention by the police following a crackdown on a peaceful protest. The primary perpetrators would likely be the Myanmar military and police forces, which have systematically used torture as a means to intimidate, punish, and extract information from individuals suspected of anti-government activities. My active participation in the Civil Disobedience Movement and my family's history of opposing the military regime significantly elevate my risk of being targeted for such treatment. The military's ongoing brutal response to dissent, including the use of torture, is well-documented and clearly illustrates why such fears are well-founded and genuine.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

1. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents or your siblings ever applied to the U.S. Government for refugee status, asylum, or withholding of removal?: No

If "Yes," explain the decision and what happened to any status you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents, or your siblings received as a result of that decision. Indicate whether or not you were included in a parent or spouse's application. If so, include your parent or spouse's A-number in your response. If you were previously denied asylum by USCIS, an immigration judge, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, describe any change(s) in conditions in your country or your own personal circumstances since the date of the denial that may affect your eligibility for asylum.:

2.A. After leaving the country from which you are claiming asylum, did you or your spouse or child(ren) who are now in the United States travel through or reside in any other country before entering the United States?: No

If "Yes," , provide for each person the following: the name of each country and the length of stay, the person's status while there, the reasons for leaving, whether or not the person is entitled to return for lawful residence purposes, and whether the person applied for refugee status or for asylum while there, and if not, why he or she did not do so:

2.B. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), or other family members, such as your parents or siblings, ever applied for or received any lawful status in any country other than the one from which you are now claiming asylum?: No

If "Yes," , provide for each person the following: the name of each country and the length of stay, the person's status while there, the reasons for leaving, whether or not the person is entitled to return for lawful residence purposes, and whether the person applied for refugee status or for asylum while there, and if not, why he or she did not do so:

3. Have you, your spouse or your child(ren) ever ordered, incited, assisted or otherwise participated in causing harm or suffering to any person because of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or belief in a particular political opinion?: No If "Yes," describe in detail each such incident and your own, your spouse's, or your child(ren)'s involvement.:
4. After you left the country where you were harmed or fear harm, did you return to that country?: No If "Yes," describe in detail the circumstances of your visit(s) (for example, the date(s) of the trip(s), the purpose(s) of the trip(s), and the length of time you remained in that country for the visit(s).):
5. Are you filing this application more than 1 year after your last arrival in the United States?: No If "Yes," explain why you did not file within the first year after you arrived. You must be prepared to explain at your interview or hearing why you did not file your asylum application within the first year after you arrived. For guidance in answering this question, see Instructions, Part 1: Filing Instructions, Section V. "Completing the Form," Part C.:
6. Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: No If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release.If you have been arrested in the United States, you must submit a certified copy of all arrest reports, court dispositions, sentencing documents, and any other relevant documents.:
Part D. Your Signature
I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application and the evidence submitted with it are all true and correct. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1546(a), provides in part: Whoever knowingly makes under oath, or as permitted under penalty of perjury under Section 1746 of Title 28, United States Code, knowingly subscribes as true, any false statement with respect to a material fact in any application, affidavit, or other document required by the immigration laws or regulations prescribed thereunder, or knowingly presents any such application, affidavit, or other document containing any such false statement or which fails to contain any reasonable basis in law or fact - shall be fined in accordance with this title or imprisoned for up to 25 years. I authorize the release of any information from my immigration record that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) needs to determine eligibility for the benefit I am seeking.
WARNING: Applicants who are in the United States unlawfully are subject to removal if their asylum or withholding claims are not granted by an asylum officer or an immigration judge. Any information provided in completing this application may be used as a basis for the institution of, or as evidence in, removal proceedings even if the application is later withdrawn. Applicants determined to have knowingly made a frivolous application for asylum will be permanently ineligible for any benefits under the Immigration and Nationality Act. You may not avoid a frivolous finding simply because someone advised you to provide false information in your asylum application. If filing with USCIS, unexcused failure to appear for an appointment to provide biometrics (such as fingerprints) and your biographical information within the time allowed may result in an asylum officer dismissing your asylum application or referring it to an immigration judge. Failure without good cause to provide DHS with biometrics or other biographical information while in removal proceedings may result in your application being found abandoned by the immigration judge. See sections 208(d)(5) (A) and 208(d)(6) of the INA and 8 CFR sections 208.10, 1208.10, 208.20, 1003.47(d) and 1208.20.
