Part B. Information About Your Application

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:

Race: Yes
Religion: Yes
Nationality: Yes
Political Opinion: Yes
Membership in a particular social group: Yes
Torture Convention: Yes

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: On April 15, 2021, following the violent arrest of Ko Wai Moe Naing, an Islamic leader of protests against Myanmar's military junta, I participated in demonstrations demanding justice and his rights. That same night, in a direct act of retaliation, military forces surrounded my home, entered forcibly without a warrant, and threatened my family, significantly compromising our safety. Subsequently, on December 23, 2022, after an explosion near my location, I was wrongfully detained and subjected to physical abuse by the military, accused of involvement in the incident. These acts of persecution by the military were clearly aimed at suppressing my involvement in pro-democracy protests, reflecting a targeted strategy to silence and control dissent based on my political beliefs.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I fear continued and severe harm if I return to Myanmar, including wrongful arrest, torture, or even execution, due to my previous involvement in anti-junta protests. This mistreatment would likely be perpetrated by the Myanmar military and police forces, who have already demonstrated their willingness to violently suppress dissent and retaliate against me and my associates. The persistent threats, extortion, and random harassment by these authorities at my family's home underscore the constant and real danger I face. Their extensive surveillance network and control over the country leave me with no safe place to relocate within Myanmar, amplifying my vulnerability to further persecution. This fear is grounded in direct past experiences of brutality and injustice, making it clear that my political activities have marked me as a target.

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: After witnessing the violent arrest of Ko Wai Moe Naing on April 15, 2021, I was compelled to join protests advocating for his rights, which led to severe repercussions from the military. That very night, military forces targeted my home, breaking in without a warrant and threatening my family, which marked the beginning of a series of persecutions against me for my active role in the protests. The situation escalated on December 23, 2022, when I was wrongfully detained and brutally beaten by military personnel after being near the site of an explosion. This abuse continued at the police station, where I was coerced into signing a declaration to cease all protest activities. These actions were clearly intended to suppress dissent and punish me for my involvement in protests against Myanmar military regime, leaving me with enduring physical and psychological scars and under constant threat, hindering my access to necessary care and compelling me to cease my activism.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?:

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.: I am deeply afraid because I have already experienced brutal treatment and threats from the Myanmar military and police due to my participation in anti-junta protests. The nature of the torture I fear includes wrongful arrest, physical beatings, and potentially fatal violence, as demonstrated when I was previously detained, abused, and coerced into signing false confessions. These acts of torture would likely be inflicted by the military or police forces, aiming to suppress dissent and punish me for my visible opposition to the regime. Their ongoing harassment and threats at my family home, coupled with their control over the country, underscore the systematic approach they use to intimidate and silence opposition, making it clear that my activism has made me a marked target for further severe persecution.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

1. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents or your siblings ever applied to the U.S. Government for refugee status, asylum, or withholding of removal?: No

If "Yes," explain the decision and what happened to any status you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents, or your siblings received as a result of that decision. Indicate whether or not you were included in a parent or spouse's application. If so, include your parent or spouse's A-number in your response. If you were previously denied asylum by USCIS, an immigration judge, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, describe any change(s) in conditions in your country or your own personal circumstances since the date of the denial that may affect your eligibility for asylum.:

Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: No If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release.
