Part B. Information About Your Application

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:

Race: Yes
Religion: Yes
Nationality: Yes
Political Opinion: Yes
Membership in a particular social group: Yes
Torture Convention: Yes

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?:
Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: On September 15, 2021, while teaching at a church in my hometown, armed soldiers stormed in, disrupting the class and threatening both teachers and students. They arrested me and four other teachers, accusing us of inciting unrest through our educational activities. At Kalays detention center, I was isolated, physically assaulted, and subjected to severe interrogation and torture, including beatings, water torture, and sleep deprivation, in an effort to force a confession to anti-government activities. I believe the harm occurred because the military perceived our commitment to free education as a threat to their authority and an act of political defiance, prompting them to suppress us through intimidation and violence to quell any potential opposition.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I fear further persecution, physical harm, and possibly death if I return to my home country. The military, which previously arrested and tortured me for my involvement in promoting free education, poses a continual and direct threat. My active role in educational reform is seen as oppositional to the authoritarian regime, which has shown relentless hostility towards educators and activists like myself. This stance, combined with my previous detention and ongoing surveillance, leads me to believe that the military would again target me, using even harsher measures to silence and punish me for my beliefs and actions.

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: In my home country, on September 15, 2021, I was arrested and detained by the military during an educational session at a church, accused of inciting unrest through my teaching activities. This was part of a broader military effort to suppress any perceived opposition, particularly those advocating for free education, which they saw as a challenge to their authority. During my detention, I endured severe torture and was coerced into signing a confession to cease all such activities. My family had to pay a significant bribe to secure my release from these dire circumstances. This experience and the ongoing risk of re-arrest due to my educational work and political views have forced me to seek safety outside my country.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?:

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.: I am terrified of returning to my home country because I fear that the military, who have already subjected me to severe mistreatment, will capture and torture me again. During my previous detention, they brutally beat me, deprived me of sleep, and subjected me to water torture in an attempt to force a confession to anti-government activities. Such torture was inflicted because they viewed my role in promoting free education as a political threat. Given their ongoing crackdown on dissent and the fact that my name remains on a wanted list, I believe they will intensify their torture methods to either punish me further or coerce me into abandoning my educational initiatives.

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

1. Have you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents or your siblings ever applied to the U.S. Government for refugee status, asylum, or withholding of removal?: No

If "Yes," explain the decision and what happened to any status you, your spouse, your child(ren), your parents, or your siblings received as a result of that decision. Indicate whether or not you were included in a parent or spouse's application. If so, include your parent or spouse's A-number in your response. If you were previously denied asylum by USCIS, an immigration judge, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, describe any change(s) in conditions in your country or your own personal circumstances since the date of the denial that may affect your eligibility for asylum.:

2.A. After leaving the country from which you are claiming asylum, did you or your spouse or child(ren) who are now in the United States travel through or reside in any other country before entering the United States?: No

If "Yes," , provide for each person the following: the name of each country and the length of stay, the person's status while there, the reasons for leaving, whether or not the person is entitled to return for lawful residence purposes, and whether the person applied for refugee status or for asylum while there, and if not, why he or she did not do so:

6. Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: No If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release.If you have been arrested in the United States, you must submit a certified copy of all arrest reports, court dispositions, sentencing documents, and any other relevant documents.:
