Part B. Information About Your Application

When answering the following questions about your asylum or other protection claim (withholding of removal under 241(b)(3) of the INA or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture), you must provide a detailed and specific account of the basis of your claim to asylum or other protection. To the best of your ability, provide specific dates, places, and descriptions about each event or action described. You must attach documents evidencing the general conditions in the country from which you are seeking asylum or other protection and the specific facts on which you are relying to support your claim. If this documentation is unavailable or you are not providing this documentation with your application, explain why in your responses to the following questions.

1. Why are you applying for asylum or withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the INA, or for withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture? I am seeking asylum or withholding of removal based on:

Race: Yes

Religion: Yes

Nationality: Yes

Political Opinion: Yes

Membership in a particular social group: Yes

Torture Convention: Yes

A. Have you, your family, or close friends or colleagues ever experienced harm or mistreatment or threats in the past by anyone?:

Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What happened; 2. When the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred; 3. Who caused the harm or mistreatment or threats; and 4. Why you believe the harm or mistreatment or threats occurred.: I have experienced significant harm and mistreatment due to my political activities in Myanmar. On April 15, 2021, during a peaceful motorcycle protest, I was abruptly arrested by the military police. The officers used excessive force, including beating me with batons, which resulted in severe injuries. I was detained and placed in a small, overcrowded cell at Monywa Prison, where the conditions were inhumane. During my imprisonment, I was subjected to both physical and psychological abuse by the soldiers who interrogated me aggressively about my affiliations and the protest plans. The mistreatment was a clear attempt to intimidate and punish me for my pro-democracy stance. A similar incident occurred on July 24, 2022, when I was again detained after a protest. The police raided our home, assaulting my parents and younger brother in an effort to suppress our collective voice against the military rule. These experiences of direct violence and threats from the authorities have instilled a profound fear in me and underscore the risks I face if I were to return to Myanmar. The military and police targeted me and my family because of our active involvement in advocating for democracy and opposing the military-controlled government, actions perceived as direct threats to their authoritarian rule.

B. Do you fear harm or mistreatment if you return to your home country?: Yes

If "Yes," explain in detail: 1. What harm or mistreatment you fear; 2. Who you believe would harm or mistreat you; and 3. Why you believe you would or could be harmed or mistreated.: I do fear harm or mistreatment if I return to my home country of Myanmar. The specific types of harm I fear include arrest, detention, torture, and potentially fatal outcomes, all of which I have previously experienced during my engagements in pro-democracy activities. The primary perpetrators I anticipate would harm or mistreat me are the Myanmar military, known as the Tatmadaw, and the police forces. These entities have a documented history of violently suppressing opposition and have directly targeted me in the past due to my visible role in protests against the military-controlled government. My involvement in these activities has marked me as an opponent to their authoritarian rule, making me a likely target for further persecution. The military's ongoing control and the lack of safe and legal recourse for political dissidents in Myanmar heighten my risks, underscoring my fear that returning would lead to significant personal danger.

2. Have you or your family members ever been accused, charged, arrested, detained, interrogated, convicted and sentenced, or imprisoned in any country other than the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: Yes

If "Yes," explain the circumstances and reasons for the action: I have been arrested, detained, and interrogated in Myanmar, my home country. Specifically, I was arrested twice due to my involvement in protests against the military regime. The first incident occurred on April 15, 2021, during a motorcycle protest in Sagaing. I was detained by military police who accused me of participating in anti-government activities. I was physically assaulted during the arrest and subsequently held in Monywa Prison where I was interrogated about my involvement in the protests and other pro-democracy activities. The second arrest took place on July 24, 2022, following another protest. Similarly, I was accused of anti-government actions and subjected to harsh treatment while in custody. In both instances, the reasons given for my arrest and detention were my active participation in demonstrations calling for democratic governance, which the current military regime views as a threat to their control. These experiences were marked by physical violence, threats, and psychological abuse, aimed at suppressing my political engagement and punishing me for my dissent.

3.A. Have you or your family members ever belonged to or been associated with any organizations or groups in your home country, such as, but not limited to, a political party, student group, labor union, religious organization, military or paramilitary group, civil patrol, guerrilla organization, ethnic group, human rights group, or the press or media?: No

If "Yes," describe for each person the level of participation, any leadership or other positions held, and the length of time you or your family members were involved in each organization or activity.:

3.B. Do you or your family members continue to participate in any way in these organizations or groups?:

If "Yes," describe for each person your or your family members' current level of participation, any leadership or other positions currently held, and the length of time you or your family members have been involved in each organization or group.:

4. Are you afraid of being subjected to torture in your home country or any other country to which you may be returned?: Yes

If "Yes," explain why you are afraid and describe the nature of torture you fear, by whom, and why it would be inflicted.:

Part C. Additional Information About Your Application

Indicate whether or not you were included in a parent or spouse's application. If so, include your parent or spouse's A-number in your response. If you were previously denied asylum by USCIS, an immigration judge, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, describe any change(s) in conditions in your country or your own personal circumstances since the date of the denial that may affect your eligibility for asylum.:

3. Have you, your spouse or your child(ren) ever ordered, incited, assisted or otherwise participated in causing harm or suffering to any person because of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or belief in a particular political opinion?: No

If "Yes," describe in detail each such incident and your own, your spouse's, or your child(ren)'s involvement.:

4. After you left the country where you were harmed or fear harm, did you return to that country?: No

If "Yes," describe in detail the circumstances of your visit(s) (for example, the date(s) of the trip(s), the purpose(s) of the trip(s), and the length of time you remained in that country for the visit(s).):

5. Are you filing this application more than 1 year after your last arrival in the United States?: No

If "Yes," explain why you did not file within the first year after you arrived. You must be prepared to explain at your interview or hearing why you did not file your asylum application within the first year after you arrived. For guidance in answering this question, see Instructions, Part 1: Filing Instructions, Section V. "Completing the Form," Part C.:

6. Have you or any member of your family included in the application ever committed any crime and/or been arrested, charged, convicted, or sentenced for any crimes in the United States (including for an immigration law violation)?: No

If "Yes," for each instance, specify in your response: what occurred and the circumstances, dates, length of sentence received, location, the duration of the detention or imprisonment, reason(s) for the detention or conviction, any formal charges that were lodged against you or your relatives included in your application, and the reason(s) for release. If you have been arrested in the United States, you must submit a certified copy of all arrest reports, court dispositions, sentencing documents, and any other relevant documents.:
